FOREWORD . . .

Now that we are leaving, it is not easy to look back on the many happy times spent here at Nobles without feeling a twinge of regret. The good fellowship and the warm friendly atmosphere of the school are hard to forget. To us, Nobles has meant more than just an education; it has been a part of our lives. Perhaps this is a feeling, rather than anything tangible, but, no matter how long our stay at Nobles, it has touched each of us. But we, like the many before us, must go on to meet new challenges. The experience gained from the daily association with our teachers and fellow students, however, will better enable us to meet the new responsibilities.

This classbook is our record. While at Nobles we have tried to uphold the ideals for which this school stands. It has not been a spotless record, nor is this book an attempt to show it as such. We have had our failures as well as our triumphs. It is, however, a sincere attempt to show what Noble and Greenough School meant to the class of '61.

DEDICATION...

We, the Class of 1961, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Richard H. Van Kleeck. Although unfortunate circumstances have kept him from being with us during our senior year, we can never forget all that he has done for our class. His understanding of the growing mind has aided each of us on the road to manhood. He has helped us with our problems, whether concerned with school or not. He has been more than a teacher; he has been a personal friend.

FACULTY

Not long ago I met one of our great schoolmasters—a veteran in that high service. “Where in your time-table do you teach religion?” I asked him. “We teach it all day long,” he answered. “We teach it in arithmetic, by accuracy. We teach it in language, by learning to say what we mean—‘yea, yea and nay, nay!’ We teach it in history, by humanity. We teach it in geography, by the breadth of mind. We teach it in handicraft, by thoroughness. We teach it in the playground, by fair play. We teach it in kindness to animals, by courtesy to servants, by good manners to one another, and by thoughtfulness in all things. We teach it by showing the children that we, their elders, are their friends and not their enemies.” “Do you talk much to them about religion?” I then asked. “Not much,” he said, “just enough to bring the whole thing to a point now and then.” Finally he added a remark that struck me—“I do not want religion,” he said, “brought into this school from outside. What we have of it we grow ourselves.”

FIRST CLASS . . .

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE . . .

This has been the class of the generous heart. Under its leadership all previous records for contributions to the United Fund were surpassed. From within its membership came the spontaneous inspiration which brought a magnificent response from every boy in the school toward our Centennial Fund. Quite obviously they know what is meant by "setting the pace," and their example has carried over into all phases of school life, most notably, perhaps, in establishing new heights of scholarship standards.

Diversity of interests has also been characteristic of these boys. Nature and the outdoors, politics and world problems, science, art, creative writing, music of all kinds—in many fields they have shown enthusiasm and talent, and their future promises to be richer as a result.

For their warmth and friendliness, their humbleness of spirit, their loyalty to the school and its principles, we owe a lasting debt to the boys of '61. I hope that they have received from Nobles half as much as they have given.

UNDERGRADS . . .

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, not talk too wise:
If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to,
broken,
And stop to build them up with worn out tools;
. . . If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the will that says to them: "Hold on!"
. . . If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!

ACTIVITIES . . .

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "Maybe it couldn't," but he would be one

Who wouldn't say no till he tried.
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that:

At least no one ever has done it";
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,

And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting 'n quitting,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done.

There are thousands to prophesy failure.
There are thousands to point out to you one by one

The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it,
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing
That "cannot be done" and you'll do it.

Dress Rehearsal

The Play of the Year

SPORTS . . .

A game is to be played for the game's sake, and it matters not a button whether it is won or lost, so long as both sides play their best: no unfair advantage of any sort can ever be taken, and within these rules no mercy is to be expected, or accepted, or shown by either side: the lesson to be learned by each individual is the subordination of self in order that he may render his best service as a member of a team in which he relies upon all the rest, and all the rest rely on him: finally, never on any account must he show the white feather. If games can be played in that spirit, they are a magnificent preparation for life.

FOOTBALL . . .

FIRST ROW: Jennings, Finlay, Blatchford (Captain-elect), Willauer (Captain), Russell, Forté, Sears. SECOND ROW: Mr. Clark, Deland, Bachner, Bromley, Meek, Jansen, Newell, Collier, Precourt, Brown, R.; Spadea, Partridge, Burbank, Brown, C.; Damon.

The 1960 Football Team, coached by Mr. Clarke and captained by Brad Willauer, enjoyed a good season, winning three, losing two, and tying two. To achieve such a record against generally heavier and more experienced teams, Nobles had to maintain high morale and play aggressive, imaginative ball. They did both. In Tim Russell, the team had a poised passer and field general; in Chris Brown they had a shifty speedster. The line and line-backers were generally more effective on defense than in opening holes. The offense, therefore, was an open one, exciting to watch.

In the opener at Southborough, a well-trained St. Mark's team edged us 21-14 with a last period touchdown. Against a towering Belmont Hill team, the next week, Nobles overcame a considerable first-half deficit to gain a tie in the closing moments. Russell's passes to Brown and Bromley made the second half all Nobles. On October 22, in Cambridge, Brown and Partridge ran wide and hard to roll up a 28-0 victory over Browne and Nichols. On the following Saturday at Brooks, over-confident Nobles found herself trailing her dogged opponents at the half. A second-half surge, aided by Russell's passes, brought home a 34-14 victory. Middlesex visited Dedham with a powerful team that scored early. The remainder was a dog-fight in which Nobles managed to tie the score and withstand a last minute Middlesex rally—final score 6-6. In the only Friday game, Nobles defeated Roxbury Latin in a loosely played but exciting encounter 18-8. On November 12, Milton invaded. Though outweighed, Nobles battled even in the first half, but in the second, Milton's power and depth opened the gap—30-14.

The 1960 team will be remembered for its determination and variety. Captain-elect Ted Blatchford, a dependable center, and a host of spirited Second and Third Classmen will be returning to carry the banner. The immediate future appears bright.

SOCCER . . .

FIRST ROW: Mandell, Henry, Mittell (Captain-elect), Tyng (Captain), McDowell, Schmid, Cutler. SECOND ROW: Mr. Paine, Hutton, Darrell, Ward, Hubbard, Mallory, Kaman.

The 1960 Soccer Team, coached by Mr. Paine and captained by its lively goalie, Jim Tyng, was stronger than its two-win, nine-loss record would suggest. Against St. Mark's, St. George's, Belmont Hill, and Tabor—some of the strongest teams in a rugged league—the play was hot and close. In the final game, Milton, playing with the championship in sight, out-classed but not outfought Nobles. Although the team defeated only Roxbury Latin and Thayer, over the season it often displayed scrap, spirit, and sportsmanship. From the squad and the Junior Varsity, which for the first time had an outside schedule, a number of promising underclassmen give hope of a more victorious season next year.

HOCKEY . . .

FIRST ROW: Cutler, Finlay, Deland (Captain-elect), Russell (Captain), Willauer, Henry, Waldinger, P. SECOND ROW: Mr. Rogerson, Hodges, Summers, R.; Bent, McDowell, Schmid, C.; Soule, Taylor.

The Hockey Team, led by able goalie Tim Russell and coached by Mr. Rogerson, was hampered by lack of ice. Nevertheless it started the season strongly, losing a close game to powerful Andover in overtime. Later, the Blue and White were outpointed only by Middlesex, St. Mark's and Groton. Spurred on by these defeats, however, the team overwhelmed St. George's, beat Browne and Nichols, and Brooks, and tied Governor Dummer. On Feb. 11 they lost an exciting game to Belmont Hill, partly because of many penalties. On the following Wednesday, Nobles journeyed to Milton. Both teams showed considerable hustle throughout the game. Nobles scored first and Milton quickly rallied to tie it at 1-1. Nevertheless two more Nobles goals coupled with a great defensive performance gave Nobles a well-deserved 3-1 win to climax the season. The coveted Sziklas Cup was awarded to defenseman Brad Willauer. With seven returning lettermen headed by Captain-elect Frank Deland, next year's prospects seem bright.

WRESTLING . . .

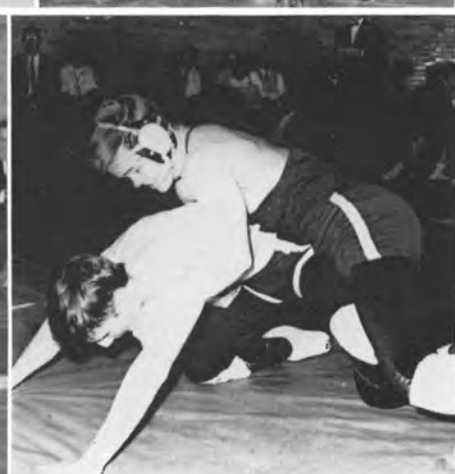

FIRST ROW: Johnson, Mandell, Brown (Captain), Jennings, Stewart. SECOND ROW: Mr. Reece, Innes, Kretschmar, Ray, Smith, Damon, Perry. ABSENT: Foss (Captain-elect).

The Wrestling Team under its new coach, Mr. Reece, and led by undefeated Captain Brown, achieved a satisfactory record. The 'early defeat by Wellesley High pointed out the weaknesses in the lower weights; a blistering loss to Governor Dummer so chagrined the team that they piled up four straight victories over Belmont Hill, St. George's, Browne and Nichols, and Roxbury Latin. Even against Needham the score was better than in previous years. The growing strength of the lower weights—helping to relieve the burden formerly sustained by the upper weights—gained victories over Lawrence and Pomfret. Despite the final, heart-breaking loss to St. Mark's, the season was more satisfactory than those of recent years. Hopes are high for a good team next year led by Captain-elect Paul Foss.

BASKETBALL . . .

FIRST ROW: Tyng, Brown (Captain-elect), Gray (Captain), Sears, Boon. SECOND ROW: Dane, Spadea, Collier, Mr. Clarke.

Ned Gray's Basketball Team, coached by Mr. Clarke, began promisingly with victories over St. Mark's, Brooks, and Browne and Nichols. A slump set in, however, bringing defeats from St. Paul's, Milton, and Middlesex. Avenging this last loss, the team trounced Middlesex 65-48 in its best game of the season. The rest of the games were defeats, most of them heartbreakingly close. Despite the poor statistical showing, however, this team will be remembered for its fine spirit and good sportsmanship throughout the year. In addition to high scoring Captain Gray, special credit is due to Sam Sears for his hustle and strong defensive play. More than half of the team will be returning under Captain-elect Roger Brown, giving hope for a more successful season next year.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

SUMMER SUPPLEMENT . . .

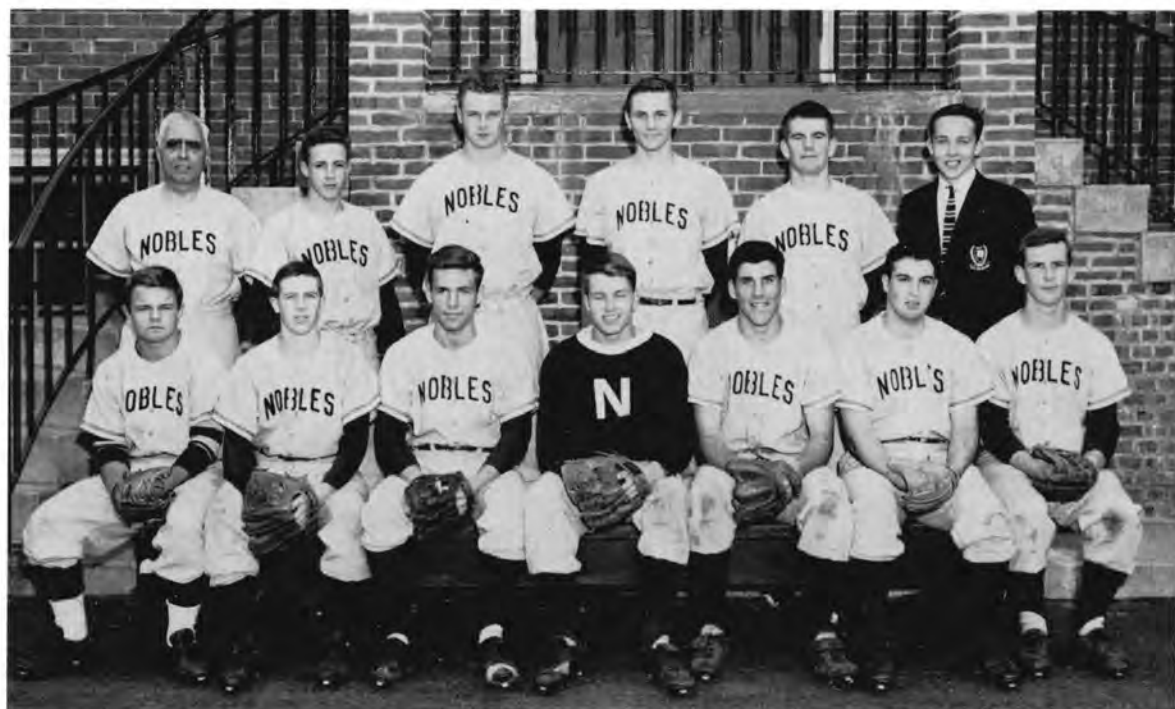

The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks:
The long day wanes: the slow moon climbs: the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'Tis not to late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulfs will wash us down:
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.
Though much is taken, much abides; and though
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are;—
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

—Tennyson

BASEBALL . . .

FIRST ROW: Brown, Soule (Captain-elect), Forté, Sears (Captain), Russell, Spadea, Partridge.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Horton, Waldinger, Collier, Brown, R.; Deland, Kreske.

Despite the lack of returning lettermen, the baseball team provided Mr. Horton with one of the best records in recent years. After losing two games to Needham and one to the graduates, the team picked up momentum as the season progressed, winning six out of their last seven games. The 1961 team boasted not only a winning season, but also a decisive victory over Milton. Special credit goes to Captain Sam Sears and Catcher Tim Russell for their leadership and dynamic play. The pitching of Roy Boon and fielding of Captain-elect Ben Soule were further aids in the success of the team. Next year's prospects seem bright, with seven returning lettermen.

CREW . . .

FIRST ROW: Dane, Watson. SECOND ROW: Lowell, Schmid (Captain), Willauer, Jansen.
THIRD ROW: Mr. Warner, Taylor, Jennings, Glidden, Stewart (Captain-elect), Gauld, Emerson.

The record of the 1961 Crews does not show that they worked harder and with more spirit than those of previous years. In the first four races with Belmont Hill, Brooks-St. Mark's, Middlesex, and Exeter, only the Third Crew gained a single victory. Nevertheless, forgetting their past losses, the crews pulled through the Interscholastics on Lake Quinsigamond with the Second Crew qualifying for the finals, the First winning the consolation, and the Third coming in a close second in their consolation. Thus, despite earlier defeats, the season ended with a feeling of triumph.

May 27	N.E.I.R.A.
	First heat placed fifth	Exeter 4:05.8
	Consolation placed first	4:12.2

On April 29, the first boat met a strong Belmont Hill crew. Although both Nobles and Belmont rowed about the same stroke throughout the race, Belmont's smoothness allowed them to increase the lead they gained at the start and pull away to win by 1 1/4 lengths.

The next week Nobles traveled to Southboro to meet with Brooks and St. Mark's. Rowing low, the first boat managed to take an early lead, but Brooks, in the first quarter, put up the stroke and pulled away.

At Middlesex, the first boat, keeping the stroke up high but always slightly behind, made an excellent bid for the lead just before the finish. Middlesex, however, held off the Nobles' attack and won by less than a length.

On May 21 the first boat rowed their best race of the season. Despite their high stroking, however, they lost to a smooth, powerful, low-stroking Exeter boat by three lengths.

At Worcester in the first heat, Nobles came in a poor fifth. In the consolation, however, they rowed an excellent race at their original low stroke.

April 29	2:51	Belmont 2:42	2 lengths
May 6	4:28	Brooks 4:27	$\frac{1}{4}$ length
		St. Mark's 4:40
May 13	2:42	Middlesex 2:40.7	$\frac{1}{3}$ length
May 21	4:12	Exeter 4:06	$1\frac{1}{2}$ lengths
May 27	N.E.I.R.A.
	First heat placed third		Groton 4:14.1
	Finals placed sixth		Belmont Hill 4:12.8

For the Belmont race the second crew was composed of Gauld, bow; Bent, 2; Jennings, 3; Perry, stroke; and Damon, cox. The next week, however, personnel were shifted with Stewart, bow; Glidden, 2; Jennings, 3; Taylor, stroke; and Watson, cox, making up the final second boat.

Against Belmont, Nobles rowed well, but lost the race when Belmont jumped them at the start. Despite their over-stroking, Nobles lost to their opponent's low but powerful stroke.

In the triangular meet, Nobles was jumped at the start by both of her opponents. By the quarter, however, the second boat managed to pass St. Mark's, although still slightly behind Brooks. Finally, in a dramatic and high finish, Nobles lost to Brooks by a fraction of a second.

Middlesex, as in the First Boat race, jumped Nobles at the start, but the second boat, settling into their smooth 36, made an exciting try for the lead just after the quarter. Middlesex, however, managed to hold off our spirit to win by less than a deck length.

On May 20, Nobles lost to a good Exeter boat. In repetition of the First Crew's race, Exeter jumped Nobles at the start and at a low stroke, won by six seconds.

At Quinsigamond, Nobles did well in the first heat by coming in third and therefore qualifying for the finals. The final competition proved too strong, however, since they only placed sixth.

THIRD CREW

	Noble's Time	Opponent's Time	Won By
April 29	2:51.6	Belmont 2:50.3	$\frac{1}{4}$ length
May 6	4:40	Brooks 4:47	$1\frac{3}{4}$ lengths
		St. Mark's 4:50.5
May 13	2:44	Middlesex 2:40.5	1 length
May 21	4:19	Exeter 4:12	$1\frac{3}{4}$ lengths
May 27	N.E.I.R.A.
	First heat placed fourth	Exeter 4:06
	Consolations placed second	Brooks 4:14.8

The Third Crew started out with Dick Stewart, bow; Glidden, 2; Newell, 3; Taylor, stroke; Watson, cox. With the shift after Belmont, it remained with Gauld, bow; Bent, 2; Newell, 3; Perry, stroke; and Damon, cox.

Against Belmont the Third Crew, like the others, was left at the start. Rowing high, they managed to cut down Belmont's lead, losing by a $\frac{1}{4}$ length.

The next week the Third Crew tasted victory in the triangular meet. Rowing low at the start, they pulled ahead of both Brooks and St. Mark's. By dropping their stroke even more in the middle, they pulled away to win handily by a few lengths.

Middlesex proved to be one of the Third Crew's best races. Keeping even with their opponent at the start, they managed to gain a slight lead. At the half, however, Middlesex raised the stroke and pulled away to win.

As usual, Exeter was strong. Rowing lower than Nobles, they took an early lead. In the last quarter, however, Nobles began to pull up, but Exeter put on a good sprint to win by seven seconds.

At Quinsigamond, Nobles in the first heat was second only to Exeter until South Kent pulled up and passed Nobles. Then Brooks crept up to edge her in the final sprint with only Belmont behind. The consolation was a tight race between Nobles and Brooks, but Brooks unfortunately took the final victory.

TENNIS . . .

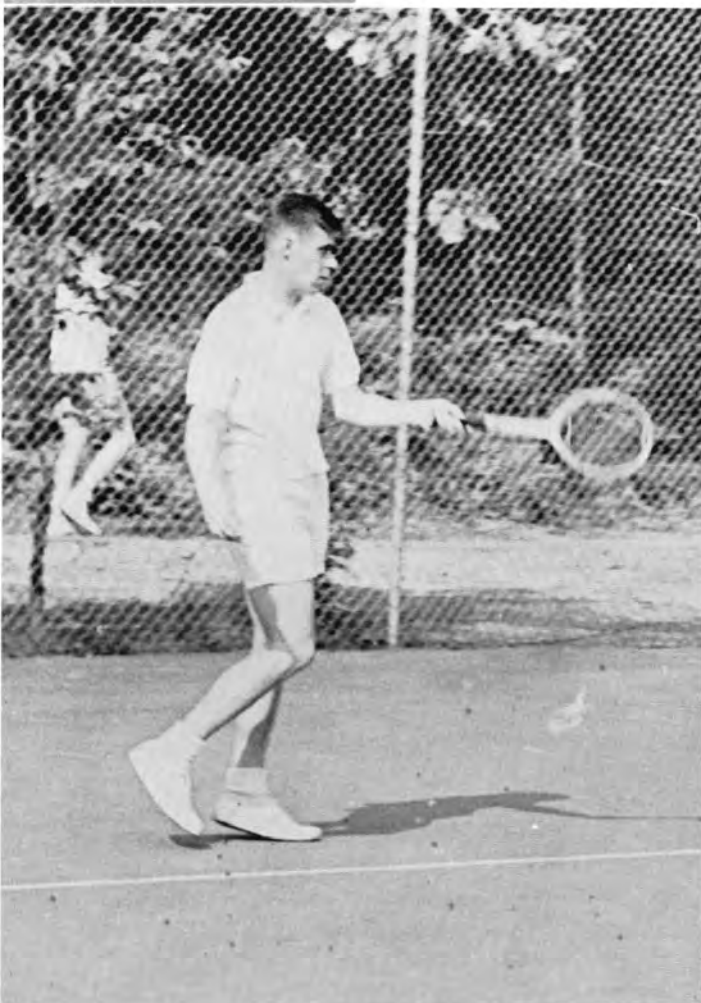

Mr. Jones, Hubbard, Tyng, Mittell, Bromley, Nicolls.

Coach Kimball Jones and Captain Dave Mittell led this year's Tennis Team to a triumphant eight and two season, the best record of any Nobles team in any sport for five years. The season was highlighted by a spirited five-four victory over Milton, and four straight wins at the end, the final three of them sweeps. Jim Tyng, the only graduating member, did a magnificent job, winning nine out of ten. Dave Mittell did nearly as well, winning eight out of ten. Freshman Jim Nicolls also played a spirited game all season long. With Tennis now a letter sport and one of increasing popularity, the future seems promising, especially next year with four returning lettermen led by re-elected Captain Dave Mittell.

VALEDICTORY

Looking into the faces of the boys in front, it is not hard to tell that this is an exciting day for them. It means the end of another school year and the beginning of summer vacation. But for our class it means something completely different. For us a whole chapter of our lives is coming to a close, and now we must turn the page and begin another. What the future will bring cannot be foreseen, but we are able to leave Nobles with great confidence that we will be able to squarely face all that will confront us.

If I may, I would like to tell you something that we have heard Mr. Putnam say several times. He feels strongly, and justly, that Nobles has a number of graduates in positions of leadership second to none. The reasons are quite simple.

At Nobles we are lucky enough to be constantly associated with already established and respected men and women, both in person and through our studies. These associations have helped develop the same type of person in the student, and therefore an individual who will lend to his college, community, and country.

Another reason for the great civil participation of graduates is that intangible spirit which is always present at school, which seems to follow every graduate, and which is instilled in all those who are connected with Nobles in any way. Obvious examples of this spirit are the corps of mothers who drive our teams to games; the great number of spectators who always seem to out-do and out-yell those of our opponents; or this spirit is felt as people crowd into little St. Paul's for the Christmas service or into the gym for the spring concert. Everything we do here is connected with the sense of belonging to a wonderful school like Nobles. As we move away from Nobles, we will carry this spirit with us and develop it for other times in our lives.

If I were to count everything that we owe to our school, the number certainly would be great. We have received an excellent education, but what I feel is more important is the fact that we have learned how to live with mankind. The way we will repay our debt is by being citizens of whom Nobles can be proud.
